Dear Kerry:

I trust this finds you well. Given that tomorrow is the 15th, and the next installment settlement payment is due then,

I would be most appreciative if you would keep me apprised of the status of the payment.

Of course, I shall confirm receipt thereof once I check with my bank. Thank you.

On a personal note, I trust your family is well, and your son has fully recovered from his little mishap.

Best,

Anthony Sabino

Anthony,

My client is still working to get the funds, they are hopeful they will go out today but it is possible they will be slightly late. They have assured me they will pay as they have done in the past. Once I have additional information, I will be sure to pass it along.

On a personal note, my son is down to just one arm brace now and was cleared to play tennis last week (his favorite sport) and yesterday he made his middle school team. So I think the broken arms are just about, officially behind us! Thanks for asking.

I hope you are doing well,
Kerry

Dear Kerry:

Thank you for your email of last Friday, 15 September, regarding the installment payment due on or before that date.

Your assurance of prompt payment is appreciated, and please keep me informed as to the status thereof.

Needless to say, Look Above reserves all of its rights to take appropriate action, if necessary.

On the same personal note previously mentioned, I am pleased to hear that your son has been cleared to return to at least some athletic activities, and my compliments that he made his middle school team. Well done!

Tennis is an excellent sport; my grandchildren are much younger than your son, but two of them have started to take beginning instruction.

I wish you and your family well.

Looking forward to hearing from you regarding the 15 September payment, I remain,

With best regards,

Anthony Sabino

Hi Anthony,

I wanted to let you know that I received an update from my client today. He said they are hoping to have the funds sent early next week. I will certainly keep you posted.

And thanks – my son's favorite sport is tennis (and my dad played in college) so I am so happy for him that he made the team and can put those broken wrists behind him! And since it is the one sport I can actually play with him (basketball is his other sport and not one I am any good at!) I am happy to b back on the court with him as well. 😊

I will be in touch hopefully soon.

Jerry

Dear Attorney Verdi:

I trust this finds you well.

As of today, PPE Solutions is more than ten (10) days late and almost two (2) weeks late with the installment payment that was due on or before 15 September.

Demand is respectfully made that PPE Solutions immediately make the overdue payment.

As always, Look Above reserves all of its rights to take appropriate action, at a time and of a kind at its sole discretion.

I look forward to hearing from you. With thanks, I remain,

Anthony,

My client sent the following and asked me to forward it to you:

"I trust this communication finds you well. I am writing to inform you about the payment that was due on 15th September under our ongoing settlement agreement in the case of Look Above LLC v. PPE Solutions Group, LLC 22-cv-03418 (ALC) (KHP) (S.D.N.Y.).

Regrettably, we were unable to remit the payment on the aforementioned date due to unforeseen delays in the receipt of inbound funds which are beyond our control. We would like to assure you that this setback does not in any way diminish our firm commitment to fulfill our obligations as per the settlement agreement. To date, we have made all required payments, albeit some have been remitted later than initially scheduled due to similar unforeseen circumstances.

We anticipate a resolution to these financial constraints very soon and are optimistic about remitting the overdue payment shortly. Our team is actively working to expedite this process to ensure that we remain compliant with the terms of the settlement agreement. The transparent and prompt communication of these developments underscores our earnest approach towards honoring our obligations, even amidst challenging circumstances.

We sincerely appreciate your understanding and patience as we navigate through this temporary setback. Our dedication to resolving this matter expeditiously remains unyielding, and we look forward to continuing our cooperative efforts towards a satisfactory resolution.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Warm regards,"

Re: Look Above LLC v. PPE Solutions Group, LLC
22-cv-03418 (ALC) (KHP) (S.D.N.Y.)

WITHOUT PREJUDICE---ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

Dear Attorney Verdi:

I trust this finds you well. I am in receipt of your email, dated 29 September 2023, wherein you transmitted, verbatim, the Defendant PPE Solutions' assertions regarding its failure, to date, to make the 15 September 2023 settlement installment payment. Let me preface my substantive comments below by stating that I hold you in no way responsible for your client's behavior. The following is directed solely towards PPE.

Look Above rejects PPE's position out of hand. PPE's alleged financial difficulties, even if true, are PPE's problem. PPE's issues in no way absolve it or relieve PPE of its obligation to pay. The controlling settlement agreement lacks any provision or mechanism which excuses lack of payment. There is no clause for forbearance or extensions. Moreover, the excuses proffered by PPE---and Look Above views them as merely that, excuses---are not only unsubstantiated and vague, these assertions closely mirror the same obfuscations which engendered the commencement of the instant litigation in the first place.

Respectfully, Look Above insists upon immediate payment. Otherwise, Look Above shall exercise any and all of its options, including, but not limited to, returning to the Court to seek an appropriate remedy. Look Above, of course, reserves all of its rights.

Please advise PPE to judge its actions accordingly. Thank you. I remain, respectfully,

Very truly yours,

Anthony Michael Sabino
